

Katia Lom

Writer / Director www.katialom.co.uk | <https://www.imdb.com/name/nm9689233/>

Katia is an award-winning filmmaker, visual artist and choreographer. Of indigenous Latin American and Jewish descent, her work explores history and cultural identity. Katia's short Triptych screened at BAFTA and Oscar qualifying festivals internationally, winning awards at the Rhode Island International Film Festival and the Imperial War Museum among others.

Released in 2023, Katia's promotional film Witness was commissioned by the NFTS Bridge to Industry with The Wiener Holocaust Library with Jonathan Glazer (The Zone of Interest) on the selection panel and a mentor.

Katia completed an MA in Directing Animation at the NFTS in 2018 with the support of a Louis Malle Scholarship and Lippincott Fellowship. She was selected in 2018 for the Zurich Film Festival Masterclass and SWISS FILMS' first feature development workshop Talent Day. That year she was invited by the Royal Opera House to take part in a selective intensive on directing for opera. She also works as an Archive Producer on history documentaries that have aired on BBC, CNN, Paramount + and Sky among others.
